

Private Land Conservation Agreements

Which BCT agreement is best for you?

Wildlife refuge agreements

Partnership conservation agreements

Funded conservation agreements

Biodiversity stewardship agreements

What technical support is available?

What are they?

Entry-level partnerships with grant funding available for conservation actions.

On title, in-perpetuity partnerships with grant funding available for conservation actions.

On-title, in-perpetuity or fixed term agreements with annual conservation management funding for landholders in eligible areas.

On title, in-perpetuity funded agreements for landholders wishing to generate and sell biodiversity credits under the Biodiversity Offsets Scheme.

- Access to landholder support staff and ecologists for technical advice, assistance and practical support

What financial support is available?

Conservation partners grants
Up to $2,000 per year for up to three years for conservation actions such as weed or pest control, or repairing fencing.

Conservation partners grants
Up to $15,000 a year for up to three years for conservation actions such as weed or pest control, or repairing fencing.

Annual payments from the BCT for BCT priority areas
An agreed, ongoing conservation management payment for conservation actions - for the term of the agreement.

Income from selling biodiversity credits generated through the agreement.

- Connection to a network of other landholders in your region

Costs involved?

Time to prepare agreement.

Time to prepare agreement.

Time to prepare agreement.

Up-front costs for assessment of land by Accredited Assessor, and additional application costs.

- Invitations to BCT workshops and other events

How do they benefit you?

Protecting important native plants and animals in your region.

Financial support for conservation actions through conservation partners grants.

Site remains protected in-perpetuity, even when the property is sold or passed on.

Financial support for conservation actions through conservation partners grants.

Site remains protected in-perpetuity or for a fixed term, even when the property is sold or passed on.

Financial support for conservation actions through annual payments.

Generation of biodiversity credits that can be sold for profit.

Site remains protected and funded in-perpetuity, even when the property is sold.

Financial support for conservation actions through annual payments.

- Links to natural resource management agencies or groups such as your local LLS or Landcare

- Receive regular BCT newsletters and updates

- Access to management guidelines and other resources through our website

Need more information?

1300 992 668

info@bct.nsw.gov.au

www.bct.nsw.gov.au